

19th annual
Frankfurt Drafting School
18 to 20 September 2023

Before the Willem C. Vis Moot Court starts in early October, the freshly chosen Mooties usually have little knowledge of the CISG or the applicable arbitration laws. Moreover, most of them have never faced the challenge of writing a memorandum and making a case from a client's perspective. Hence, in the short amount of time they are given to produce both memoranda, the participants not only have to deal with fields of law previously unknown to them, but also have to familiarise themselves with a new form of presenting legal arguments.

This is where the Frankfurt Drafting School (FDS) aims to provide valuable assistance. During the course of this three-day seminar, the participants are introduced to the basic concepts of International Commercial Arbitration and to the CISG. Lectures will be held by renowned academics and practitioners who are affiliated with the Vis Moot Court as coaches and/or arbitrators. Furthermore, in a long-standing FDS tradition, two experienced former coaches will conduct hands-on memorandum drafting exercises with the participants and analyse memoranda from past editions of the competition.

The FDS is organised by the Frankfurt Moot Alumni Association (FMAA), a collegiate organisation consisting of current and former law students of Goethe University Frankfurt am Main. To cover the arising costs, there will be a participation fee of approx. € 45 per team member. Please note that due to uncalculatable costs arising this year, we can only invoice you post registration. Participation is limited to 90. All team members are welcome (up to six participants). For teams with less than six team members, coaches are welcome to fill the spots. Deadline for applications is September 1, 2023 (Friday). Additional team members can sign up. The additional spots will be distributed on a first come first serve basis after deadline for applications.

The FDS is conducted partly in German and partly in English. It will be held at Goethe University Frankfurt am Main, Campus Westend from 18 to 20 September 2023.

The FMAA cordially invites you to the 19th FDS. We would be delighted to see you in Frankfurt this autumn!
